NEW TIME! 11:05 am - Fourth Sunday In-Person Service at DK Maria's Legendary Tex Mex, 1807 W. Slaughter Lane, Austin.

Where did I come from? How did I get here? The Unitarian minister, Rev. Fred Wooden, challenged the Fellowship to learn more about its Unitarian roots and we accepted the challenge! The three-part series began in December when three members of the Fellowship described the surprising evolution of their personal religious and spiritual beliefs. Now, Part 2 will explore the roots of Unitarianism and how controversies led to changing beliefs. Unitarian “heretics” were burned at the stake? Who were they? And why? Was that evolution in belief still relevant to current UU controversies?

We will discuss “Theo of Golden” by Allen Levi. A story of giving and receiving, of seeing and being seen, Theo of Golden is a beautifully crafted novel about the power of creative generosity, the importance of wonder to a purposeful life, and the invisible threads of kindness that bind us to one another.

Fourth Sunday In-Person Services New Location!

Beginning on March 22, 2026, the Open Hearts and Minds Fourth Sunday In-Person Services will meet at 11:05 am at DK Maria's Legendary Tex Mex located at 1807 W. Slaughter Lane. The restaurant doors open at 11:00 am and the service starts at 11:05 am in a large private room. See you there!

We're on the move because the South Austin Senior Activity Center (SASAC) could no longer guarantee the building would be open on Sundays.

Now, DK Maria's welcomes us. After the service, everyone can stay to visit with friends because the room is available until at least 1:00 pm. Some congregants would like to stay for lunch in the same room; they can order and pay for their meal individually right after the service.

So, bring a friend for the March 22nd Sunday service and stay for lunch. See you there!

Book Club News

Our April read is: I've Seen You Naked 8,000 Times by Ilene Haddad, an Austin author. This is a humorous memoir of essays and cartoons and tells the story of how Ilene's one night stand turned into decades of marriage, navigating religious differences, home improvement, mental illness, travel and romance. The author may even join us when we meet on the third Monday in April for our book discussion!

Book Club book discussion for I've Seen You Naked 8,000 Times is scheduled for Monday, April 20th at 4:15pm CT, 5:15pm ET.
