Mon Jan 19

4:15 pm - Book Club

We will discuss "Stoner" by John Williams.

From Amazon: "John Williams's luminous and deeply moving novel is a work of quiet perfection. William Stoner emerges from it not only as an archetypal American, but as an unlikely existential hero, standing, like a figure in a painting by Edward Hopper, in stark relief against an unforgiving world."

Thank Heaven for Moral Relativism

The Ten Commandments are back in the news, thanks to the Texas Legislature. Steve Brooks deconstructs them to offer a fresh take on morality and its supposed opposite: moral relativism. He shows how relativism can be a source of human progress, and how the key moral question is not, "Who is my God?" but "Who are my relatives?" Want to take the M-word back from the immoral minority? Here's a way to start.
